If a membership certificate is owned by more than one member, the member entitled to cast the membership vote shall be designated in a certificate signed by all of the members owning an interest in such certificate. If a certificate is owned by a corporation, it shall designate the person entitled to cast the vote by certifying such person's name with the Secretary. If a certificate is jointly owned by a husband and wife, they may designate a voting member, or, not having a designated voting member, if only one is present at a meeting, that owner may cast the membership vote. If a husband and wife are both present at the meeting, are unable to agree as to their vote, and have not filed a Voting Certificate, their vote will not be counted.

UNIT OWNERS THAT ALREADY HAVE A VOTING CERTIFICATE ON FILE DO NOT HAVE TO FILE ANOTHER ONE UNLESS THEY WISH TO CHANGE THEIR DESIGNATED VOTING REPRESENTATIVE.
